FRA PRESIDENTEN

I just received word from our Editor, Bonnie Lampley, that it is time to write my “last” words for this year. The end of a term provides the opportunity to reflect as to what happened to our lodge. Yes, we did lose some members who opted to leave the lodge for personal reasons and, yes, I do miss them. When members leave it is almost like to experience a light form of bereavement which includes the missing presence and contribution of the individual but then, when time goes on the “missing” part diminishes and, in my case, I become more aware of the current companionship that we have and I realize that it does not take a very large number of people to feel good about what is happening at our lodge and I thank you all for your participation and camaraderie.

For the 2011 term we are welcoming, as a new officers, Jane Witesman for Vice President, Social Directors, Sharon Thon and Else Gottfried, Assistant Secretary – Jean Stone – Trustee 3rd Year, Bev Glasgow – Greeter, and for Publicity we have Stacey Fossen. The members who asked to be relieved of their current function are Paul Poling, Vice-President, Dick Fyten – Trustee 2nd year. All other officers decided to keep their current position. We thank everyone for their term of service to the Lodge and we are looking forward to a prosperous New Year.

Every year, the commanding Olive Green directs the Christmas pageant for the Little Church in the Vale, but there is always something missing. Trying to get it right this year, she hires the flashy Hollywood Theater of Peace and Tidings of Great Joy Traveling Troupe with their real feather angel wings, a band and a camel! But when a snowstorm keeps Hollywood out, Olive's friends convince her to create a pageant with the church members already there. Everyone wants in on the act, from the feuding church board members who suddenly discover harmony to the women's auxiliary singing tidings of comfort and pie. There are also the people at the church seeking shelter from the storm, but something is still missing, even with the arrival of three wise men — Allen, Fred and George Wiseman, that is! Norwegian Polka Band can fill the emptiness Olive feels until a wise custodian tells her exactly what she is missing.

The best-loved songs of Christmas and a sweet, funny story filled with memorable characters combine to teach a gentle lesson — Christmas is not in the flash and the feathers but in the true gift of that holy night so long ago.
